Edward Cassian Found

Edward Cassian, pitcher for Philadelphia and Washington in 1891, has been found by Bob Richardson and Rich Bozzone. Bob and Rich share the October Find of the Month award.

Bob found a note in the 1891 Boston papers that the Philadelphia pitcher Cassian had not played in a while because of the death of his mother. Coupled with a note Bob had indicating that Cassian was from Hartford, Bob checked the 1892 city directory which showed that Kate Cassian (widow of Michael) had died June 26, 1891. The 1900 Connecticut census showed an Edward Cashin living in Middletown, Connecticut. Bob and Rich both suspected that this was our ballplayer.

Cassian appeared in the Middletown city directory in 1916 and 1917. So Rich made a trip to Middletown to check death records from 1918-22. Finding nothing even similar to his last name, Rich asked the clerk if they had burial records for people that did not die in Middletown but were buried in cemeteries there. She gave him another file and he found Edward Cassian buried September 12, 1918 in St. John's New Cemetery. Rich then obtained the death certificate of Edward Cassian, son of Michael and Catherine, who died September 10, 1918 in Meriden, Connecticut. He also found an obituary in a Middletown paper, which referred to him as a former Philadelphia pitcher. Outstanding research by Bob and Rich!

1997 Rookie List

As you can see, I have attached the 1997 rookie list. This year there were 180 rookies, 55 of which were foreign born. No new countries were represented this year. The foreign player tally includes 22 from the Dominican Republic, 12 from Venezuela, 5 from Puerto Rico, 4 from Mexico, 3 from Japan, 3 from Canada, 1 from Panama, 1 from Cuba, 1 from Colombia, 1 from Australia, 1 from Curacao, and 1 from Spain.

There were several players who were either sons or brothers of other major leaguers. Aaron Boone is the brother of Bret, son of Bob, and grandson of Ray. Rich Butler is the brother of Rob. Jose L. Cruz is the son of Jose. Ben Grieve is the son of Tom, Pete Rose, Jr. is the son of Pete, Sr., Jose Javier Valentin is the brother of Jose Antonio Valentin (their parents liked the name), and Jaret Wright is the son of Clyde.

There were 4 rookies named Cruz, but none named Smith. For only the 5th time since 1871, there were no rookies born in any of the boroughs of New York City. For the record, the other years were 1903, 1973, 1979, and 1989. The oldest rookie was Shawn Gilbert, who was 32; the youngest was Dennis Reyes, who was 20. The tallest was Sean Maloney at 6-07; the shortest were Giomar Guevara and Jason McDonald, both 5-08. The heaviest was Dennis Reyes at 246 and the lightest was Giomar Guevara at 150.

Finally, we've arrived at the moment you've all been waiting for when I pick my favorite name among the rookies. It was a close race, and just nosing out Jed Ramon Hansen is the winner, born on my birthday, Richmond Lockwood Sexson.

Setting The Wheelers in Motion

The 1920 Indians, who can probably generate more trivia questions than any other team, had two players whose first or middle name was Wheeler. They had Joseph Wheeler Sewell and Wheeler "Doc" Johnston. Interestingly, both of these men had brothers who played in the major leagues. Thanks to Scott Flatow for providing that piece of trivia.

Shouldn't They Call It Laryville?

Never let it be said that the town of Northport, Alabama isn't proud of its most famous baseball player. Both Frank Lary and his older brother Al were born in Northport and still live there. Frank lives on Baseball Drive and Al lives on Frank Lary Road. By the way, according to our records, the brothers are amazingly close in age. Al was born September 26, 1929 and Frank was born April 10, 1930, a difference of 6 months, 15 days. Does this seem a bit suspicious?

Miss America

Bill Simpson, who obviously keeps abreast of Miss America's vital information, writes that Miss America of 1998, Kate Shindle, is from the New Jersey environs of Philadelphia. Does anyone know if she is related to 1890s third baseman Billy Shindle?

Maybe He Could Be Our Mascot

Joe Simenic and Richard Topp provided this interesting tidbit. Sal Fasano is the only ballplayer who was either born, died, or debuted on the date SABR was founded. By the way, keep sending Richard burial sites of former major leaguers. To date, he has 798.

Demographics

Pat Doyle sent me an interesting list. He has kept records of the deaths of players who were major leaguers from 1950-1997. He has compiled a list of average age at death by position and the cause of death. Since cause of death isn't always available, the total is less than the overall total.

Average Age At Death By Position

Position	Number	Avg. Age
Pitcher	182	57.92
Catcher	46	59.24
First Base	34	58.18
Second Base	26	55.31
Shortstop	20	58.75
Third Base	24	56.63
Outfield	81	61.85
Total	413	58.66

Sounds like those guys who slide hard into second to break up a double play sure take their toll.

Cause of Death By Type

Cause	Number	Avg. Age
Cardiovascular	92	58.98
Cancer	71	57.55
Accidental	33	43.7
Murder/Suicide	12	51.25
Pneumonia	7	71.29
Kidney	6	50.5
Leukemia	6	50.33
Liver	4	56
Diabetes	2	55
Emphysema	2	70.5
AIDS	2	37
ALS	1	62
Alzheimers	1	74

Total 239

Birthday List

There are several nonagenarians celebrating birthdays in November. Be sure to send a card.

November 2	Elon Hogsett	94
November 17	Rolland Stiles	91
November 24	Billy Rogell	93
November 28	Edwin Chapman	92
November 30	Clyde Sukeforth	96

Where is Frank?

Our October Mystery of the Month is of somewhat recent vintage. Frank Thomas Smith pitched for the Reds from 1950-56 although jumping to the Cardinals in 1955. Jack Smalling reports from the autograph community that Smith is deceased. The last address Jack had for him was 120 89th Avenue NE in St. Petersburg, Florida. I sent to Florida for a death certificate search and apparently he didn't die in Florida. So where and when did he die? He was born in Pierrepont Manor, New York, a town of about 250 people between Syracuse and Watertown. I haven't checked there, so perhaps something can be found there. Anyone want to take this on?
