

Braves-Cardinals Series

STANDING ON SUNDAY A. M., MARCH 10

	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Louis Cardinals	2	0	1.000
Boston Braves	0	2	.000

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.

After taking free-hitting contest, 8 to 5, March 10, Cardinals again defeated Braves, 3 to 0, in pitchers' battle, March 11. In opener, Redbirds collected 11 blows off three Boston pitchers, Vern Bickford, Bob Chipman and Murray Wall, with Enos Slaughter, Earl Weaver, Jay Van Noy and Tommy Glaviano each making two. Double by Stan Musial, triple by Slaughter and single by Van Noy put St. Louisans ahead with two runs off Bickford in fourth inning. After Braves scored three tallies in their half on four walks and two singles off Bob Habenicht, Weaver doubled in one run and Glaviano singled two more across off Chipman in fifth to put Cards in front. They added another tally in seventh on three singles and two more in ninth, driven in by Van Noy with single off Wall. Cliff Chambers gave up Braves' two other markers in seventh. Boston was limited to two singles in second game by Wilmer Mizell, Kurt Krieger and Willard Schmidt. Cardinals made only five hits, but nicked Lew Burdette for one run in first frame on walk, wild pitch and Stan Musial's double and two more tallies in second on two walks, wild pitch, late throw on grounder and Weaver's single. Dave Cole pitched hitless ball for four innings and Virgil Jester gave up two hits without damage in the eighth frame.
