NATIONAL NOTES

NEXT MEETING UPDATE

From Chapter President Barry M. Bloom:

Hello, baseball fans and SABR members. Happy month of June. We're two months into the baseball season and the races are starting to shake out.

So is our June 15 SABR meeting. It will be a big one. As our special guest this month we are lucky to have Chase Field organist and D-backs fan Bobby Freeman replete with his organ. He'll tell some stories and tinkle the keys. Should be a little different and fun for all.

As always, the parameters for another Saturday morning are the same. It's the Eagle Buffet at Casino Arizona, 11 am to about 2 pm. That's just off the 101 at McKellips. For $15.95 you get brunch, a mimosa or Bloody Mary, some great baseball talk and Bobby. That's a smash hit.

Don't forget a $10 donation to the chapter to help pay for the room.

Space is limited and should fill up fast. If you and a friend, spouse or loved one are coming email me ASAP at boomskie@aol.com.

Non SABR members are welcome. We hope you'll join. See you on the 15th.

WE'RE JUST ONE MONTH AWAY FROM SABR 49 IN SAN DIEGO

It's that time of the year again!

SABR 49 in sunny San Diego is just weeks away at this point – It's scheduled for June 26-30 at the Manchester Grand Hyatt in San Diego!

As always, there is much to see at our organization's biggest event of the year. This year some of the highlights are a panel of the 1984 San Diego Padres, a Women in Baseball Panel, a Padres Player Panel, etc.

There will also be 32 research presentations to take in! You don't want to miss it. If you still need one-day tickets or more information, please click this link!

INTERESTED IN MIAMI BASEBALL HISTORY? CHECK THIS OUT

Our good friend Sam Zygnier from the South Florida Chapter of SABR just finished his second book: Baseball Under the Palms: History of Miami Minor League Baseball the Early Years: 1892-1960.

From Sam: "[The book] tells the fascinating story of the growth of hardball from its humble beginnings of town ball, to organized play and the "outlaw leagues,"; culminating in the eventual acceptance of officially sanctioned minor league teams in Miami.
