

Accurate Runs-Scored Records for Players of the Deadball Era: The Players on the 1911 Detroit Tigers

by Herm Krabbenhoft

APPENDIX

RESEARCH PROCEDURE

For each of the 831 runs scored by the Tigers in 1911 I sought to obtain three critical components: (a) the identity of the player who scored the run; (b) the details of the run-scoring event [e.g., a 2-RBI double, a balk, a 1-RBI grounder (batter safe on a fielding error), a 0-RBI grounder (batter safe on a fielding error), a 1-RBI bases-loaded walk, etc.]; and (c) the identity of the player who completed his plate appearance during the run-scoring event (i.e., the player who could be credited with batting in the run). And, because runs batted in were not recorded officially until 1920, and were not even defined officially until 1931, I followed the 1931 official scoring rules [Rule 70, Section 13] to credit or to not credit a player with an RBI — “Runs Batted In are runs scored on safe hits (including home runs), sacrifice hits, outfield put-outs, infield put-outs, and when the run is forced over by reason of the batsman becoming a base-runner. With less than two outs, if an error is made on a play on which a runner from third would ordinarily score, credit the batsman with a Run Batted In.” I then provided the complete documentation that I assembled to Retrosheet’s Tom Ruane and Dave Smith for their independent review, upon which we achieved 100% agreement and Retrosheet incorporated all of the runs-scored numbers in its Box Score file (and derived Player Daily files).

NEWSPAPER ACCOUNTS of SELECTED GAMES

May 24, 1911 — Detroit vs. Washington — Detroit Scored 6 runs

Fifth Inning — Detroit scored 2 runs

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Ness was the first to receive a present. Stanage sent him to third with a long single to right. After Works had fouled to Somerlott, Jones whacked a double over Lelivelt’s head and Ness scored, Stanage being held at third. Bush walked and Cobb was safe on a bounder to Somerlott, which the first baseman handled cleanly but couldn’t make a play on as he was too late for Stanage at the plate and nobody covered first base. With every pillow occupied and only one out, it looked as though the time had come for the Tigers, but Groom proceeded to fan Crawford and Delahanty.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — Nothing at all.

Detroit News (DN) — “Detroit’s first scoring was in the fifth when Ness walked and took third on Stanage’s single. Works popped to Somerlott. [Jones doubled, scoring Ness. Bush walked and Cobb grounded to Somerlott] and while the first sacker stood holding the ball Stanage scored and the other two runners advanced. This brought up Crawford with bases packed. Crawford struck out and Delahanty did the same.”

Detroit Times (DT) — “Groom used a spitter in his worst pinches and struck Crawford and Delahanty out in succession with the bases full in the fifth. ... Ness walked. Stanage singled to right, Ness taking third. Works fouled to Somerlott. Drake doubled against the left screen, Ness scoring. Bush walked, filling the bases. Cobb made good, a high bounder to Somerlett, Stanage scoring. Crawford fanned again.”

Washington Evening Star (WES) — “In the fifth Groom had the bases full, with one down, and he struck out both Crawford and Delahanty. ... Detroit was hapless before Groom till the fifth, when Ness walked and took third on Stanage’s single. Works lifted to Somerlott, but Jones scored Ness with a double, and Stanage took third on that play. Cobb hit to Somerlott, and while the first sacker held the ball, Stanage scored. Crawford and Delahanty struck out.”

Washington Herald (WHLD) — “The Tigers did not start until the fifth. Ness walked. Stanage singled. Jones doubled, and Cobb beat out an infield roller. This scored a couple. ... Groom’s feat in the fifth inning, when, with the bases full and one out, he struck out Crawford and Delahanty will long be remembered locally.”

Washington Post (WP) — “Ness was the first to receive a present. Stanage sent him to third with a long single to right. After Works had fouled to Somerlott, Jones whacked a double over Lelivelt’s head and Ness scored, Stanage being held at third. Bush walked and Cobb was safe on a bounder to Somerlott, which the first baseman handled cleanly but couldn’t make a play on as he was too late for Stanage at the plate and nobody covered first base. With every pillow occupied and only one out, it looked as though the time had come for the Tigers, but Groom proceeded to fan Crawford and Delahanty.” [NOTE: The WP description is exactly the same as the DFP description.]

Washington Times (WT) — “Ness drew a pass in the fifth and took third as Stanage ripped off a single to right. Jones’s double to left scored Ness and put Stanage on third, from where he scored as Cobb beat out a dancer to Cunningham. With three on, Groom fanned both Crawford and Delahanty.”

Seventh Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “With one out, Groom issued ‘comps’ to Jones, Bush, and Cob in a row. Crawford lifted a feeble foul to Conroy for the second out. Delahanty hit one to McBride and just beat the throw to first, Jones crossing the plate. Then Groom settled again and made Moriarty go after three strikes that he couldn’t reach.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — Nothing at all.

Detroit News (DN) — “With Works down, Groom walked Jone, Bush, and Cobb. Crawford popped to Conroy, but Delahanty got an infield hit, scoring Jones. Then Groom struck out Moriarty, retiring the side.”

Detroit Times (DT) — “McBride fumbled, but threw out Works. Jones walked. Bush walked. Cobb walked, filling the bases. Groom and Crawford battled until the count was three and two, then Crawford popped to Conroy. Delahanty hit to McBride and beat the throw, Jones scoring. Moriarty fanned.”

Washington Evening Star (WES) — “... Detroit got one run. That was in the seventh. Groom had walked Jones, Bush, and Cobb after Works grounded out. Crawford popped to Conroy and Delahanty hit a sharp grounder to short for a single.” ... The Tigers scored again in the seventh when Delahanty got an infield hit, with the bases packed.”

Washington Herald (WHLD) — “Groom passed Jones, Bush, and Cobb with one out in the seventh. Delahanty making good an infield single and allowing one run to score.”

Washington Post (WP) — “With one out, Groom issued ‘comps’ to Jones, Bush, and Cob in a row. Crawford lifted a feeble foul to Conroy for the second out. Delahanty hit one to McBride and just beat the throw to first, Jones crossing the plate. Then Groom settled again and made Moriarty go after three strikes that he couldn’t reach.” [NOTE: The WP description is exactly the same as the DFP description.]

Washington Times (WT) — “In the seventh, with one down, Jones walked, and so did Bush and Cobb, largely through the assistance of O’Loughlin. Delahanty scored Jones with a drive too hot for McBride.

Eighth Inning — Detroit scored 2 runs

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Schaller, batting for Ness, opened it [the eighth] by looking at four that weren’t even close to the plate. Stanage sacrificed neatly. This brought up Works, whose idea of successful batting is to hit [tall?]. He chose this place for one of his five tall hits, banging a rattling double up against the left field bleachers. This scored Schaller in a walk. Jones was rescued by Cunningham for the second out. Bush [hit?] a grounder right at McBride, who fumbled the ball, Bush being safe and Works running home. Cobb grounded to Cunningham, who forced Bush at second.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — Nothing at all.

Detroit News (DN) — “Schaller batted for Ness and walked. Stanage sacrificed. Works scored Schaller with a double, advanced on Jones’s out, and McBride’s fumble of Bush’s grounder sent Works home.”

Detroit Times (DT) — “Works, in the eighth inning, with one man on, one out, and the Tigers one run to the bade, flailed the highly-rubberized sphere a mile out into left center, bringing home the tying run and scoring one himself a moment later on an infield out and a little slip by McBride. ... Schaller, injected to bat for Ness in the eighth, worked Groom for one of those walks, and scored on Works’s double. ... Schaller batting for Ness. Schaller walked. Stanage sacrificed, Groom to Cunningham. Works doubled to left, Schaller scoring. Cunningham tossed out Jones, Works advancing. McBride fumbled Bush’s grounder, Works scoring. Cobb forced Bush, Cunningham to McBride.”

Washington Evening Star (WES) — “A base on balls to Schaller, Stanage’s sacrifice, Works’s double, Jones’s out at first, and McBride’s error on Bush’s grounder gave Detroit two [runs] in the eighth.”

Washington Herald (WHLD) — “A pass to Schaller in the eighth with Works’s double and an error by McBride scored the [two] runs that brought the Tigers up to reaching distance.”

Washington Post (WP) — “Schaller, batting for Ness, opened it [the eighth] by looking at four that weren’t even close to the plate. Stanage sacrificed neatly. This brought up Works, whose idea of successful batting is to hit [tall?]. He chose this place for one of his five tall hits, banging a rattling double up against the left field bleachers. This scored Schaller in a walk. Jones was rescued by Cunningham for the second out. Bush [hit?] a grounder right at McBride, who fumbled the ball, Bush being safe and Works running home. Cobb grounded to Cunningham, who forced Bush at second.” [NOTE: The WP description is exactly the same as the DFP description.]

Washington Times (WT) — “One run to the bad, Jennings sent Schaller in to hit for Ness and O’Loughlin gave him a ride for nothing. Stanage sacrificed him and Works burned the ball to left center for two cushions, Schaller making the run that tied [the score, 5-5]. Works took third on Jones’s death at first and scored as McBride fumbled Bush’s little bouncer.”

Eleventh Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Cobb was first up for Detroit in the eleventh. After getting two strikes he scooped a low ball out to Milan. Crawford slammed a single to right. Delahanty flied to Gessler for the second out. Then Crawford stole second and proceeded to take third by the same method on the fourth ball to Moriarty. Lathers hit a low bouncer to Cunningham, who made the stop and then proceeded to throw low to first, the ball getting past Somerlott and the game ended as Crawford crossed the plate with the sixth Detroit tally.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — “In the eleventh inning, with two out and Crawford on third, Cunningham made a costly boot of Lathers’ grounder and Crawford galloped home with the winning run.”

Detroit News (DN) — “With Cobb down in the eleventh, Crawford singled. Delahanty flied and Crawford stole second. As Moriarty walked Crawford stole third. Lathers hit an easy grounder to Cunningham. The second sacker made a clean pickup and then threw the ball on a bound to Somerlott. The ball struck the first sacker’s glove and bounded out, Crawford scoring the winning run.”

Detroit Times (DT) — “Crawford’s finishing burst as a grand effort. In the eleventh, with one out, he singled, stole second and third, and then scored on an agitated chuck to first. ... When Crawford can win a game for Detroit by singling in the eleventh, and then stealing second and third and scoring on an error, it looks like the Tiger camp had a new star.”

Washington Evening Star (WES) — “In the eleventh Crawford singled with one down, and stole second. Delahanty flied out. Crawford stole third as Moriarty walked. With two men down and Crawford on third, Lathers hit an easy grounder to Cunningham. Then second-sacker made a bounding thrown, and the ball bounded out of Somerlott's mitt. Lathers was over first before Somerlett recovered and Crawford was home with the winning run."

Washington Herald (WHLD) — "The Tigers and Nationals battled eleven innings before the league leaders, by virtue of a single by Crawford, his steals of second and third, and a low chuck to first by Cunningham worked around the run that spelled defeat for the men of McAleer."

Washington Post (WP) — "With one out in the eleventh, Crawford singled to right and stole the next two bases. After Delahanty had fled to Gessler and Moriarty had been passed, Lathers hit an easy grounder to Cunningham, who threw badly to first, Lathers being safe, and Crawford crossing the plate with the winning run."

Washington Times (WT) — "Milan seized Cobb's sailer in the eleventh, but Crawford cracked his first single to right. He pilfered second and, after Delahanty had skied to Lelivelt, hypothecated the next cushion. Hughes had relieved Groom in the ninth and was doing good work, but he could not overcome that incubus, 'Silk' O'Loughlin. Moriarty was passed generously by the 'King of Umps.' Then came the auspicious moment for the jungaleers. Lathers was patient and picked out one to his liking. But Hughes had 'something on the ball' and a puny roller went to Cunningham for what seemed an easy out. No, he slapped a yellow toss to Somerlott, and Crawford had made the winning run."

SUMMARY of the 6 runs scored by the Tigers (newspaper text descriptions)

1 (Fifth Inning) — Ness scored on a 1-RBI double by Jones.

2 (Fifth Inning) — Stanage scored on a 1-RBI single by Cobb.

3 (Seventh Inning) — Jones scored on a 1-RBI single by Delahanty.

4 (Eighth Inning) — Schaller scored on a 1-RBI double by Works.

5 (Eighth Inning) — Works scored (from third base) on a 2-out grounder by Bush who was safe on a fielding error (fumbled grounder) by the shortstop McBride.

6 (Eleventh Inning) — Crawford scored (from third base) on a 2-out fielding error (wild throw to first) by the second baseman Cunningham; the batter, Lathers, was safe on the fielding error.

- Schaller actually scored 1 run — not 0 runs as shown on official DBD records — in the game.
- Ness actually scored 1 run — not 2 runs as shown on official DBD records — in the game.
- Schaller actually scored 9 runs — not 8 runs as shown on official DBD records — in the season.
- Ness actually scored 5 runs — not 6 runs as shown on official DBD records — in the season.

July 28, 1911 (Second Game) — Detroit at Philadelphia — Detroit Scored 5 runs

Third Inning — Detroit scored 2 runs

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Jones walked for a starter and remained on first while Bush was popping to Barry. Cobb, after hitting a foul over the right field fence, tapped one in front of the plate and beat Lapp’s hurried throw. In endeavoring to catch Jones of second, Coombs hit him with the ball and both runners moved along. Murphy got Crawford’s long foul after a run, Jones reaching the rubber and Cobb taking third. Without Coombs’s error the men would have advanced on the catch and both would have scored on Delahanty’s nice single to right. As Jones had already rung up his run, only Cobb was in position to profit by this well, his run tying the count. Moriarty again struck out.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — “Detroit came through in the third, Jones hitting and Cobb making a bunt after Bush popped out. Both runners pegged a hole when Coombs bounded it off Jones trying to nip him at second, and Jones came in on Crawford’s long foul to Murphy. Delahanty singled Cobb home.”

Detroit News (DN) — “Jones walked and Cobb scratched a single in front of the plate. They advanced when Coombs threw wild to get Jones off second. Jones counted on Crawford’s sacrifice and Cobb came home on a single by Delahanty.”

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

Sixth Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Successive doubles into the crowd by Crawford and Delahanty gave the Tigers one [run] in the sixth, all this happening with none out. Moriarty hit to Baker, who made a stab at Delahanty and forced him out of the line, as [Umpire] Connolly says, or did nothing of the sort, as almost everybody else contends, whichever you please. At any rate Delahanty was clear out and Baker got the ball to first in time for a double play. If the decision on Delahanty was wrong, it cost a run, for O’Leary came through with a hit. Then Stanage waved a three and the side was out.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — “Doubles by Crawford and Delahanty gave the Tigers one [run] in the sixth.”

Detroit News (DN) — “Crawford scored after he doubled to the crowd and Delahanty followed suit.”

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

Eighth Inning — Detroit scored 2 runs

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Delahanty began the Tiger eighth with his third two-bagger of the day. Moriarty sacrificed and O’Leary delivered the run by making the first ball pitched to center. Stanage fanned, but O’Leary made second on a passed ball and was in position to score when Donovan electrified the mob by bursting a hit to the suburbs frequented by [center fielder] Oldring. Jones smeared a double to center, but Donovan paused at third, and was still there when Bush was taken out on strikes.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — “In the eighth, Delahanty hit for two cushions again, Moriarty sacrificed, and Delahanty counted when O’Leary hit safely. O’Leary moved up on a passed ball and scored when Donovan hit safely. Jones doubled, but he and Donovan were left.”

Detroit News (DN) — “Delahanty started the eighth with his third double. Moriarty sacrificed and O’Leary singled, scoring Delahanty. O’Leary went to second on a passed ball and scored on a single to center by Donovan.”

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

SUMMARY of the 5 runs scored by the Tigers (newspaper text descriptions)

1 (Third Inning) — Jones scored on a 1-RBI sacrifice fly by Crawford.

2 (Third Inning) — Cobb scored on a 1-RBI single by Delahanty.

3 (Sixth Inning) — Crawford scored on a 1-RBI double by Delahanty.

4 (Eighth Inning) — Delahanty scored on a 1-RBI single by O’Leary.

5 (Eighth Inning) — O’Leary scored on a 1-RBI single by Donovan.

August 2, 1911 (Second Game) — Detroit at Boston — Detroit Scored 2 runs

Second Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “The Tigers tied it up in their second. Crawford started this with a single to right and went to third when Pape hit him with the ball in trying to catch him dozing, the pill bouncing off Crawford’s anatomy into the peasantry. Moriarty’s long fly to Riggert sent the run in.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — “The Tigers tied [1-1] in the second, Crawford hitting safely and going to third on Pape’s bad peg to get him off the base; he went in on Moriarty’s long fly.”

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

Eighth Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Delahanty started the eighth with a double and took third when Paper made a bad throw trying to catch him off his base. O’Leary’s sacrifice fly sent Delahanty home after Moriarty had lifted to Speaker. Stanage fanned.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — “The Tigers got their last run in the eighth, Delahanty doubling and pegging a hole on Page’s bad toss. O;Leary lifted a long fly on which Delahanty scored.”

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

SUMMARY of the 2 runs the Tigers scored (newspaper text descriptions)

1 (Second Inning) — Crawford scored on a 1-RBI sacrifice fly by Moriarty.

2 (Eighth Inning) — Delahanty scored on a 1-RBI sacrifice fly by O’Leary.

Lathers	0	0	0	0	0	0

CONCLUSIONS:

- Delahanty actually scored 1 run — not 0 runs as shown on official DBD records — in the game.
- Delahanty actually scored 83 runs — just as shown on official DBD records — in the season [see below].

September 4, 1911 (Second Game) — Detroit at St. Louis — Detroit Scored 10 runs

Second Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “The Tigers had made one tally on their part [of the second] on a single to Wallace by Gainer and Wallace’s two-base overthrow to Hogan. Gainer scored on a single by Stanage.” [NOTE: Gainer was batted in by Stanage (single).]

Detroit Journal (DJ) — Nothing at all.

Detroit News (DN) — “A wild throw by Wallace, which let Gainer reach third on an infield grounder, and an out by Moriarty put the Tigers in the lead in the second inning.”

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (SLGD) — “With Drake out of the way, Gainer shot a single past Lake, and when Wallace threw past Hogan, the runner went all the way to third. Moriarty was out, LaPorte to Hogan, and Gainer scored. Stanage singled to center. Lafitte flied to Schweitzer.” [NOTE: Gainer was batted in by Moriarty (groundout).]

St. Louis Post-Dispatch (SLPD) — Nothing at all.

St. Louis Star-Times (SLST) — Nothing at all.

Third Inning — Detroit scored 2 runs

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Bush walked. Cobb spanked a single to center and Bush raced to third. Crawford’s single to left scored Bush and put Cobb on second. Cobb moved up on a sacrifice from Delahanty and scored on an infield out that Drake manufactured.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — “Bush walked as a starter. Cobb singled, then Crawford came through with another one base knock, Bush scoring and Cobb reaching third. Cobb scored shortly afterwards on an infield out.”

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (SLGD) — “Bush walked and went to third when Cobb singled to left. Crawford singled to the same field, Bush scoring. Delahanty sacrificed, Lake to Laporte. On Drake’s out, LaPorte to Hogan, Cobb scored. Gainer tapped to Lake.”

St. Louis Post-Dispatch (SLPD) — Nothing at all.

St. Louis Star-Times (SLST) — Nothing at all.

Fifth Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Cobb singled and took a big lead off first. Stephens attempted to get him with a snap throw to Hogan and Cobb started for second. It looked as though he would have arrived at the keystone station if the ball had been handled properly, but the official scorer charged Hogan with an error for dropping the ball and did not give Cobb a stolen base. He pilfered third cleanly and counted when Delahanty beat a single to deep short.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — Nothing at all.

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (SLGD) — “One down, Cobb singled to center. Lake had Cobb picked off first but Hogan dropped the throw. Crawford boosted to Meloan. Cobb swiped third and scored on Delahanty’s single past Wallace. Drake hit to center and was forced by Gainer.”

St. Louis Post-Dispatch (SLPD) — Nothing at all.

St. Louis Star-Times (SLST) — Nothing at all.

Seventh Inning — Detroit scored 6 runs

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Bush walked again. Cobb singled and Bush attained third. Cobb stole, but Bush was held at third. Cobb might have been out but for the fact that Wallace dropped the throw. Crawford plunked a double into right and both Bush and Cobb crossed the plate easily. This finished Lake, and Powell went in. Delahanty put Crawford on third by a neat sacrifice. Drake walked and stole. Gainer was passed. Then came Moriarty, who stung a liner that LaPorte dropped, Crawford scoring. Half-way decent play would have ended the rally here, but LaPorte made two mistakes in muffing the ball and throwing wildly to Hogan. As Stanage was thrown out by LaPorte, Drake came over. Lafitte maintained the dignity of the pitching department with a single, letting Gainer and Moriarty tally.”

Detroit Journal (DJ) — “In the sixth Bush again walked. Cobb singled, then Crawford doubled, sending in both runners. Lake was pulled and Powell went in. Delahanty sacrificed. Drake walked. Gainer walked, then Moriarty shot a liner that turned LaPorte almost completely around. LaPorte dropped the ball then tossed wild to Hogan, Crawford scoring. Stanage went out, Drake scoring. Lafitte singled, putting in Gainer and Moriarty. Bush was up for the second time in the inning and he went out.”

Detroit News (DN) — “A walk to Bush, a single by Cobb, and a double by Crawford brought in the first two [runs]. Then Powell took the mound. Drake walked and Gainer did the same, filling the bases. Moriarty lined to LaPorte, who dropped the ball and Crawford scored. Stanage’s out brought in another [run], and a single by Lafitte scored two more [runs] and the count for the round was six.”

Detroit Times (DT) — Nothing at all.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat (SLGD) — “Bush walked. Cobb singled to center and stole second. Crawford doubled to right, Bush and Cobb scoring. Lake was benched and Powell went on duty. Delahanty sacrificed. Drake and Gainer walked, filling the bases. Moriarty was safe on LaPorte’s error, Crawford scoring. Stanage was out, LaPorte to Hogan and Drake scored. Lafitte singled to center, scoring Gainer and Moriarty. Bush forced Lafitte.”

St. Louis Post-Dispatch (SLPD) — Nothing at all.

St. Louis Star-Times (SLST) — Nothing at all.

SUMMARY of the 10 runs scored by the Tigers (newspaper text descriptions)

1 (Second Inning) — Gainer scored on a 1-RBI single by Stanage.

2 (Third Inning) — Bush scored on a 1-RBI single by Crawford.

3 (Third Inning) — Cobb scored on a 1-RBI groundout by Drake.

4 (Fifth Inning) — Cobb scored on a 1-RBI single by Delahanty.

5 (Seventh Inning) — Bush scored on a 2-RBI double by Crawford.

6 (Seventh Inning) — Cobb scored on a 2-RBI double by Crawford.

7 (Seventh Inning) — Crawford scored (from third base) on a 0-out fielding error (muffed fly ball) by the shortstop Wallace; the batter, Moriarty, was safe on the fielding error.

8 (Seventh Inning) — Drake scored on a 1-RBI groundout by Stanage.

9 (Seventh Inning) — Gainer scored on a 2-RBI single by Lafitte.

10 (Seventh Inning) — Moriarty scored on a 2-RBI single by Lafitte.

- Delahanty actually scored 83 runs — just as shown on official DBD records — in the season [see above].

September 29, 1911 — Detroit at Washington — Detroit Scored 9 runs

First Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Bush opened the game with a double and Cobb was walked. Crawford sacrificed. Delahanty hit to Conroy, and Bush beat the throw to the plate. Drake struck out, and Hughes caught Cobb trying to steal home.”

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Washington Evening Star (WES) — Nothing at all.

Washington Herald (WHLD) — “Bush greeted Hughes with a double to left and Cobb walked. Crawford advanced them a peg and Delahanty hit to Conroy, who attempted to throw Bush out at the plate, but the Tiger short fielder beat the throw home. Cobb made a fake start for home and Henry picked him off third. Drake ended the inning by fanning.”

Washington Times (WT) — “Bush’s double, a base on balls, a sacrifice, and an out gave Detroit one run in the first.”

Third Inning — Detroit scored 2 runs

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “In the third, with Bush out, Cobb tripled to the ‘bull’ sign in right center. Crawford singled the run over, and died stealing. Delahanty hit the center field fence for three and counted on an infield single by Drake, who was retired stealing, ending the round.”

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Washington Evening Star (WES) — Nothing at all.

Washington Herald (WHLD) — “Bush was called out on strikes and Cobb smashed the ball up against the left field fence for three bases, fast work on Milan’s part holding Cobb at third. Crawford singled to right and Cobb scored. Crawford died trying to steal. Delahanty tripled to left and scored when Drake beat out a tap to McBride. Drake was thrown out at second by Henry.”

Washington Times (WT) — “The Tigers strengthened their position in the third on triples by Cobb and Delahanty and singles by Crawford and Drake.”

Sixth Inning — Detroit scored 4 runs

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Gainer, first batter, tripled to the barrier in center. Moriarty flied. Stanage singled the run across. Donovan also hit for a base. Henry threw out Bush, moving up the two men who were on. Cobb hit for two bases, scoring the runners. Crawford then tore off the longest hit of the day, over Milan’s head for three bases. Cobb scored, but Crawford was left when Elberfeld flagged Delahanty.”

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Washington Evening Star (WES) — Nothing at all.

Washington Herald (WHLD) — “Gainer opened this [sixth] round with a triple to left and Moriarty popped to Elberfeld. Stanage singled, scoring Gainer, and Donovan slammed a safety to center. Bush went out, Henry to Schaefer, Stanage and Donovan moving up. Cobb then decided that a double would be about enough, and Stanage and Donovan both scored. Crawford hit to center for three bases and Cobb registered the fourth run of the inning. Elberfeld tossed out Delahanty.”

Washington Times (WT) — “For Detroit, Gainer tripled past Walker, Stanage and Donovan hit safely, and Cobb’s double was followed by a three-bagger by Crawford. When the atmosphere cleared the Tigers had piled up four registrations.”

Seventh Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Drake scored in the seventh on his own single, a wild pitch, and a lucky hit by Moriarty.”

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Washington Evening Star (WES) — Nothing at all.

Washington Herald (WHLD) — “Drake singled and went to second on a wild pitch. Gainer fanned and Moriarty singled to left, Walker messing up the ball and Drake scoring, Moriarty going to second. A wild pitch advanced Moriarty to third, but he died there as Stanage fanned and Donovan went out on a roller to Elberfeld.”

Washington Times (WT) — Nothing at all.

Eighth Inning — Detroit scored 1 run

Detroit Free Press (DFP) — “Cobb tripled to left in the eighth and counted on Crawford’s long fly.”

Detroit News (DN) — Nothing at all.

Washington Evening Star (WES) — Nothing at all.

Washington Herald (WHLD) — “After Grady had thrown Bush out at first, Cobb tripled to left and scored when Crawford lifted a high fly to Walker. Delahanty singled, but Henry threw him out at second.”
